

Midday Book Club

---

STUDY QUESTIONS

BARABBAS by Par Lagerkvist

In the novel by Par Lagerkvist, Barabbas's perspective of Christ is the significant issue of the book.

1. How does Barabbas see Christ? His best followers (Sahak and the Hare-Lipped Girl?) Does his view change?
2. What does the author seem to be saying about belief in Christ through this novel?
3. What does the author seem to be saying about believers in Christ and what should characterize them?
4. Note the use of names in the novel, both the specific and general names given to people.
5. Look carefully at the characterizations of Sahak and the Hare-Lipped Girl.
6. What do you make of the ending?

820 N. LaSalle Blvd., Chicago, IL 60610
www.middayconnection.org