STUDY QUESTIONS

The Wise Woman and other stories
by George MacDonald

1. In The Wise Woman (or sometimes titled The Lost Princess) George MacDonald presents us with the unforgettable character of the Wise Woman. In what way is she a Christ/God type, and if so, what are the specific attributes MacDonald emphasizes?
2. What spiritual office does Prince serve?
3. Agnes and Rosamund have different character flaws that must be addressed. Identify these, and speculate as to why Agnes is actually the harder character to redeem (her fate remains somewhat indeterminate at the end).
4. How is this book a tremendous theological handbook in parenting? What does MacDonald seem to be saying to parents?
