Moody Global Media Vice President Wes Ward had the honor of accepting the Milestone Award on behalf of Moody Radio at NRB's Thursday night closing gala. This prestigious recognition celebrates nearly 100 years of impactful radio ministry.

See You Next Year!

It was wonderful seeing so many of you at NRB 2025 in Dallas. We loved the face-to-face connections with our affiliates and ministry partners—thank you for stopping by the Moody Radio suite to catch our live broadcasts and Q&A session with Dr. Michael Rydelnik on Open Line. See you next year in Nashville! Mark your calendars for NRB 2026, February 17–20!

Bill Harrier began his career studying at Moody Bible Institute and working at WMBI. Decades later, now at Radio Training Network, he continues to make an impact. As he nears retirement, Dr. Mark Jobe, president of Moody Bible Institute, honored Bill for his years of service and kingdom impact through Christian radio.

Wes Ward, VP of Moody Global Media, started his career at KCBI in Dallas, Texas, alongside Troy Kriechbaum, now of Encouragement Media Group.

We were grateful to spend time with Troy and other Encouragement Media Group team members, including Adam Winkler and Bill Bumpas. It was a privilege to hear how they're building a strong community of believers through Christian radio—and to pray for their team, ministry, and listeners.

Ed Cannon has served as president and CEO of Far East Broadcasting Company (FEBC) since 2012. Before joining FEBC, he spent nine years at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago as executive vice president and chief operating officer and over 25 years in the oil industry.

Pictured here, Ed was presented with a 100-year centennial coin from Moody Radio by Jamin Baxter, director of Business Growth Strategies for Moody Global Media.
