Renouncing Doubt and Fear

Since You are thoroughly and forever trustworthy, O Living God, I renounce doubt and fear as incompatible with our relationship established by You upon my faith in the crucified, risen, and exalted Lord Jesus the Messiah. You have told us not to be anxious, for You care for us intimately and constantly. I would continually cast all my concerns upon You, for You always are concerned about me.

Forgive me for fear and anxiety, and teach your weak and failing child to trust in You always. Forgive me for doubting your love, your care, and your Word in the Scriptures. You have given us all that we need for life and godliness in this present world.

Doubt has led me astray to seek other than your best for my life—in jobs, relationships, achievements and pleasures. I reject trusting in myself, my resources, my plans, my friends instead of trusting in my all-powerful Father.

Nothing can separate me from your love—neither death nor life, Satan nor demons, things present nor future, height nor depth, time nor space, nor any created thing. I am yours forever, and You are mine.

Whatever ground I may have given to the enemy in these things I claim back in the powerful name of the Risen God-man. Help me to reject instantly any attempt by the enemy to introduce doubt or fear to my mind. Amen.

Protection from Evil

I ask You, Lord God, to protect me, my family, and my church against the assaults of the devil and his demons. I am confident that You are for me and no one can be successful against me as I walk in dependence and obedience. Let me to stand firm in the truth in Christ and to follow your leading in my life.

I renounce all self-sufficiency and pride and humbly depend upon You. Teach me what I need to know about the Christian life in the Spirit and about the reality of spiritual warfare. Make me aware of the first approach of the enemy and enable me to resist him in the faith.

Help me to confess my sins and my weakness and to command him to back down and go where the risen Lord Jesus sends him. I go confidently forward with You, Lord Jesus; for You are my strength, my fortress, and the Victor over sin, the world, and Satan. I take my position as victor in the Victorious Lord, and I will trust and obey. I pray in the powerful name of the risen and living Savior. Amen.

Deliverance from Pornography

I thank you, our Creator and Redeemer, that You designed sexuality and its expression as a good and holy creation.

You designed intimate sexual relationships to find proper expression within God-designed marriage. You judge sexual violation severely. You hate the perversions found in false religions.

I pray for marriages in my acquaintance and those in the church that they may be found in the way of righteousness. I pray against the human and demonic forces involved in pornography and for deliverance and freedom through the name of the Lord Jesus. I pray for those I know who are involved with pornography that they might recognize this improper and perverted concept and control by the enemy.

If I am having difficulty along this line, I confess my sin, cancel the moral occasion I have given to Satan, and command him and his demons to leave to the place where Jesus sends them. Help me to take a firm stand against this violation of your good design, against this devaluation of honorable sexual powers, and against interference with good marital relationships. I pray this in Jesus' powerful and holy name. Amen.

Deliverance from Oppression

I confess and renounce any ancestral sins affecting me. I cancel the ground they have been using, and command them to depart to face the Lord Jesus.

I confess and renounce all personal sins that have given the enemy ground (moral occasion). I cancel that ground and command all associated spirits to depart to where the true Lord Jesus sends them.

I confess and cancel any ground given by transfer of wicked spirits to me by any control over my mind or body.

I confess and renounce any way that I may have allowed that. I reject any control that was forced upon me and declare myself free from that influence. I also break any evil soul ties—emotional bondages—to those who violated my privacy and dignity.

I command any wicked spirits that transferred to me to depart to face the Lord Jesus on the basis of my union with Christ and assuming my authority granted to me in the risen Savior, I command in Jesus' name all wicked spirits within or around me to depart and to go where the true Lord Jesus sends them.

I give You thanks and praise, Lord Jesus, Son of God, for your grace, love, and power. Accomplish all your will in my life. Set me free from bondage and heal me of all that the enemy and his agents have brought upon me. Amen.

Renouncing Personal Occult Practices

Holy Father, whatever involvement I have had in the occult I totally and specifically renounce as opposed to your person and your commands. I confess that I have by such sought hidden knowledge and secret power. By so much I judged that You, your truth, and your provision were not sufficient for me. I recognize this as rebellion and idolatry, and I choose against it. Any form of divination in which I dabbled I confess and stand against. I reject involvement with any of the following: ouija board, tarot (predictive) cards, palm reading, tea leaf reading, astrology, ESP, predictive dreams, repeated deja vu experiences, visiting psychics or fortune tellers. If I have practiced magic or sought to control persons or things through “mind control,” I confess this and stand against it as sin. Any love or hate magic, any binding or loosing, any hurt or healing ceremonies, any attempts to move objects or control circumstances—all these I reject as contrary to trusting in the true and living God. I confess and renounce fantasy games (as D&D). Whatever contact I may have sought with spirits—either the human dead or with guiding spirits—I confess and renounce this as trafficking with demons and contrary to the commands of God. Any advantage I may have gained through such, I renounce and forsake. If I have listened to mediums or channelers, I reject this practice as rebellion against God, the Creator. If I have gained any advantage through such, I refuse to use it or continue in it. Whatever involvement I have had with witchcraft or Satanism I confess as wretched sin. I renounce any sacrifice, any dedication, any ceremonies linking me to the gods that such people serve. I ask You, True and Living God, to cleanse and free me from such connections and control. I declare myself free from these. Thank You, my Heavenly Father, that You are sufficient for me. I cast all my cares upon You and trust You for all my needs admitting that I do not have the wisdom or the power to stand on my own. Instead of seeking to overcome my limitations by resorting to sinful practices, I will turn to You with all my weaknesses for all my needs. I will trust You and You alone. Thank you for forgiveness and for removing this ground from the enemy. Amen.
