A Stirring in Jerusalem

What if the events of Holy Week took place in front of today's cameras and microphones? Imagine a recording of the throngs cheering Christ's entrance into Jerusalem—or a reporter embedded in the crowd outside Pilate's Hall. That's the premise of Moody Radio's production, A Stirring in Jerusalem.

These 14 one-minute features (two per day during Holy Week) take listeners back to the biblical story.

The full collection is available to stations via FTP.

In Celebration of the Risen King

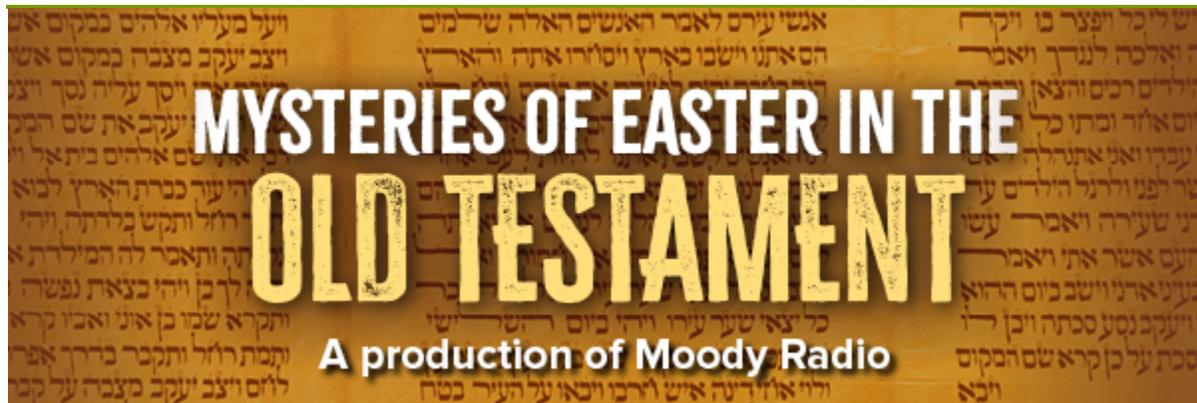

You know the story of Easter, but what about the songs of Easter? In the special In Celebration of the Risen King, Bill and Gloria Gaither share the story behind their beloved hymn, "Because He Lives." You'll also hear conversations with Michael Card,

Steve Green, and Larnelle Harris, reflecting on how their travels through Israel inspired their thoughts about Easter. And finally, Keith and Kristyn Getty take listeners inside their music-making process. It's the story of Easter told through the music of Easter.

Secrets from the Garden

For many Christians, Gethsemane is a brief stop on the way to the cross. But critical questions demand explanation. What is the truth behind Jesus' sweating "as it were great drops of blood"? When He prayed, "Not my will, but thine, be done," what did He want us to learn?

The answers to these questions and more are revealed through interviews and on-location sounds from Israel in this special from Moody Global Media.

Vinegar Boy

A young boy, abandoned by his parents because of a ghastly facial birthmark, is taken in by Roman soldiers. He earns his keep in the commissary by supplying vinegar wine to condemned prisoners at Crucifixion Hill. He learns of a man called Christ, the healer, and seeks Him out, hoping his birthmark will be removed. But Vinegar Boy's long-awaited encounter turns tragic when he discovers the healer staggering toward Crucifixion Hill, Himself condemned. Thus begins Vinegar Boy's odyssey with the Christ of the cross.
