Thank you for Joining Us at NRB 2025

It was a pleasure connecting with each of you at NRB 2025—especially those who joined us for our live broadcasts. Several Moody Radio programs, including Open Line with Dr. Michael Rydelnik, Chris Fabry Live, and the newly available Karl & Crew recorded and aired from the Moody Global Media suite at NRB.

Be sure to tune in to Open Line on Saturday, April 27, at 9:00 a.m. CT to hear the special episode we recorded live during NRB. This two-hour live Bible Q&A program centers on your listeners' most pressing questions about God's Word.

Satellite Transition: SES-2 to SES-11 | April 1–June 1, 2025

Moody Radio is transitioning from our current satellite SES-2 at 87-degrees West Longitude to SES-11 at 105-degrees West Longitude this spring. The new carrier is now live, and the SES-2 carrier will be decommissioned after June 1, 2025.

Affiliates will need to re-aim their satellite dishes during the transition window. We recommend hiring an experienced engineer to complete the alignment.

New from Moody Publishers: Platforms to Pillars

A biblical response to living in a platform-driven world.

We live in a performance-driven culture that elevates individualism and performance. It's rooted in the belief that self and personal desires are preeminent. In Platforms to Pillars, cultural expert Mark Sayers challenges this mindset and calls Christians back to a better way—living as pillars rooted in God's presence and purpose.

This timely book offers biblical insight and encouragement for those weary of the pressure to perform and eager to experience the freedom that comes from belonging to God.

Platforms to Pillars: Trading the Burden of Performance for the Freedom of God's Presence by Mark Sayers is now available from Moody Publishers. For interview opportunities with author and pastor Mark Sayers, please contact Janis Backing.
