

Dr. Rick Melson Named Moody Bible Institute's 11th President

Moody Bible Institute has named Dr. Rick Melson as its 11th president, effective August 17, 2026. He succeeds Dr. Mark Jobe, who faithfully served in the role for the past seven years.

Dr. Melson currently serves as president of Southwest Baptist University and brings more than 30 years of experience in Christian higher education, ministry, fundraising, enrollment, and organizational leadership.

Living a Legacy Returns to Moody-1

Living a Legacy with Dr. Crawford Loritts has returned to the Moody-1 schedule Sundays at 6:00 p.m. CT. The program replaces Bold Steps Weekend with Dr. Mark Jobe, which has ended production. Bold Steps continues weekdays as a 26-minute program along with the Bold Steps Minute feature.

An updated Sunday 6:00 p.m. CT program clock is available here.

New from Moody Publishers: A Love to Live By

God's command to love one another remains central to the Christian life—but living it out isn't always easy.

In A Love to Live By, Dr. Winfred O. Neely explores the biblical foundation of mutual love within the church and offers practical examples of what Christlike love looks like in everyday relationships.

Ministry leaders, pastors, educators, and anyone seeking to grow in Christian love will find biblical encouragement and practical wisdom.

Dr. Neely is available for interviews. Please contact Janis Backing to schedule.

Moody Radio Offices Closed for Labor Day
