Excerpts from Handel's Messiah

Moody Radio produced Excerpts from Handel's Messiah in response to numerous listener and station requests. This special features selections from George Frideric Handel's beloved oratorio, "Messiah", which is performed by Moody Bible Institute's Sacred Music Department. Drawn from past Moody performances, these favorite excerpts celebrate the awesome power of God and the gift of His Son through the beauty of music and Scripture.

Program length: 54 minutes, plus a one-minute barter spot.

The Lesser Characters of Christmas

We know all about Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus. But what about the lesser characters of Christmas? There's Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, and her doubting husband, Zechariah. And what about Anna, the prophetess, and Simeon—both divinely led to meet the infant King at the temple? Discover the powerful life lessons these often-overlooked figures can teach us in The Lesser Characters of Christmas, a documentary featuring dramatic vignettes and interviews from Israel.

Program length: 54 minutes, plus a one-minute barter spot.

Unwrapping Christmas in the Old Testament

For most of us, the Christmas story begins in the Gospels. But did you know its roots reach back into the Old Testament? Discover a fresh perspective on the Christmas story through compelling conversations, powerful Scripture, and dramatic vignettes.

Recorded primarily in Israel, this special brings the biblical setting to life through location-based sound effects.

Program length: 54 minutes, plus a one-minute barter spot.

Where Love Is

Originally produced by Moody Broadcasting Network for the Proclaim broadcast, Where Love Is is a dramatic radio adaptation of Russian author Leo Tolstoy's 1885 short story, Where Love Is, God Is. First aired December 6–8, 2000, the drama follows Martin, a bitter shoemaker who lost his wife and son years earlier. But when a missionary challenges him to live for God, Martin discovers how simple acts of kindness can transform a life.

Program length: 33 minutes, 21 seconds, plus a one-minute barter spot.
